It's Back To Macon This Saturday

OK everybody—my vacation is over! I'm going back to work at Macon this Saturday, July 23. Chilly, (Jim Childers) will also be back to the announcer booth after his surgery. The racers have spent a cool weekend racing in Wisconsin at Wilmot last Saturday and Angell Park Speedway on Sunday. Congratulations to Brad Kuhn, who won the main at Wilmot, and to Jerry Coons, Jr. who was Sunday night's winner at Angell Park. We congratulate Badger Association on their 75th Anniversary and we hope they have many more racing seasons in front of them to provide great midget racing for all of our fans.

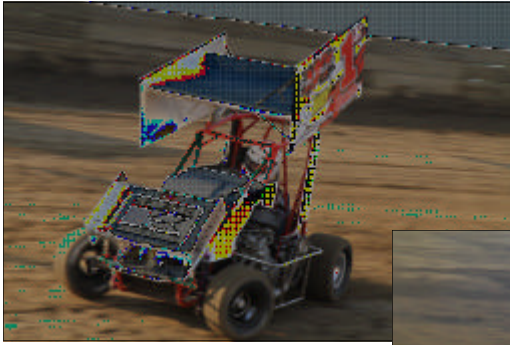

I found out that you learn the darndest things when you stay in town and talk to people. Like—my grandson, Reed, has a new Fire Belly Toad; Nick Knepper is working for Levi Jones at the Swansea Rural King; Kurt Westerheide ( a recently new POWRi micro owner/driver) has moved 2 houses away from me (and I will get over there to talk to him and find out how he got to be a micro person); the Browns and Kneppers and their extended families did a Float Trip last weekend; Brad Knepper (you remember the little quarter midget guy who was featured at last year's Fan Fest Weekend) is going to the Dirt Nationals in Taylorville, Il in a few weeks and Lyndon Kendall from New Zealand is putting together a program to bring drivers from 'Down Under' to the states to run with POWRi . Don't know if he is aiming for this year yet or working on doing it next year.

Well, it's onward and upward for the rest of the 2011 season. Macon this Saturday and then, the one of the most fun weeks of the year for POWRi racers and fans. We do Midget Money Week in Kansas and Nebraska and western Missouri. Beloit, Kansas on July 28 for the 2nd Annual Chad McDaniels Memorial; 2 days, July 29-30, at McCool Junction, Nebraska for the Cornhusker Challenge and then July 31 a stop at the neat track at Cameron, Mo. on the way home. If you are looking for a great racing road trip, this is it! Get your camper packed up and ready to go and come with us. All three tracks allow dry camping. Get your self a pit pass and spend quality time visiting with the racers and getting the latest scoop on motors, tires, the racers themselves and a lot of great bull-crap (pardon my language but that word is better than the other one). If you don't have a camper, there are good motels in Concordia, Kansas and in McCool Junction. There will be some racers staying at many of them and I have to say the parking lot sessions after the races are a 'stitch' as a friend of mine says. Think about it!

Notes from the Apparel Trailer— New Brett Anderson t-shirts are on hand. For those fans who think black is too hot and white shows dirt too easy, these shirts will suit you since they are gray and good looking too. We have a new supply of the full racing flag sets again. Great for decorating your race cave.

We will be having some new event shirts available soon also—If you can't make it to the Chad McDaniel Memorial or the Cornhusker Challenge, let me know and you can order in advance and I will bring them back for you . We have a few of the Dean King Memorial shirts left as well as the 66 Phillips Memorial shirts. We will also have a special shirt for the Knepper Memorial, hopefully before the race. Keep in touch. Stop by the POWRi Apparel Trailer whenever you see it . Wanda

Fan Club Members T-Shirt Drawing

As you know, we pull a name from the registered POWRi Fan club members list at each POWRi race during the season. That person wins a POWRi T-shirt in the size of his choice.

So far we have drawn 10 names since March 2011. Of those 4 T-shirts have been claimed. Congratulations to George Kovacevich from Renselaer, Indiana; Chad Kimberlin from Brownstown, Illinois; Cathy Montgomery from Windsor, Illinois and Lyndon Kendall from Auckland, New Zealand.

Those whose names were also pulled and who need to stop by the POWRi Apparel Trailer and choose their shirt are—Jason Woods from Arnold, Mo.; James Rhodes from Hillsboro, IL; Frank Wright from Owensville, Mo.; Kenneth Bergfeld from Foristell, MO; Kevin Filkins from Zeigler, Il, and Chris Zumwalt from Imperial, MO.

If you are among these POWRi fans, stop by the Apparel trailer and pick up your shirt. If you know any of these guys, remind them.

If you have a friend who is a POWRi fan, encourage them to come to the trailer and sign up for the POWRi Fan Club. Nothing to lose and maybe a T-shirt to gain.
